fND can join BJP, why leave me out?

Former finance minister Raghavji Bhai (83) is distraught that former Congress leader and three times chief minister ND Tiwari has joined...

I find it hard to believe that ND Tiwari is acceptable to the BJP when the accusations against him have been proved while I was expelled by the same party when nothing could be proved. My expulsion was against the tenets of the party constitution and I have been saying this from the first day

...ploitation and a CD surfaced to support the allegation. Four months before the assembly elections, Raghavji had to resign from the ministerial post and was even arrested and sent to judicial custody. His political career came to an end with the sex CD and sodomy allegation.

But on Thursday Raghavji...
"What does the party want to prove by accepting ND Tiwari? I have nothing against the BJP giving a ticket to his son Rohit Shekhar but it beats my logic why the party should have accepted the father into the fold."

Bhopal: The state BJP has issued a show-cause notice to party leader Jugal Singh Arora, who allegedly misbehaved with government doctors in Sehore, on Wednesday. Arora, whose wife Arvika is chairperson of Sehore municipality, threatened women doctor Dr D S Suman and chief surgeon Dr Anand Sharma with dire consequences, if they failed to attend his phone call for medical examination of a Class 9 boy in a sexual harassment case. Known for his...

influence in the district. Arora first got feisty about the man and then the doctor, says Anand Sharma. He said, "I will thrash you with a stick, drag you in public and drive you out of the hospital".

After the incident, government doctors in Sehore went on strike and tendered their resignation demanding action against Arora. Later, the district collector pacified doctors, when Arora apologised for his conduct.

Doctors said they would lodge an official complaint with the chief minister. Arora is former district panchayat president and also representative of BJP Lok Sabha member from Sehore.

Iconic School to open in March

Bhopal: The Iconic School has announced March 29, 2017 as its day of launch for the academic year 2017-18.

The school management recently made this announcement. Spread over 21 acres, the school, in the first year, would offer admission to students from Nursery to Class 8.

The school is equipped with modern facilities including digital classrooms and computer laboratories, said a press release issued by the school. TNN
